

NATURAL EXPRESSION Show off your wedding photos—and environmental consciousness—in an earth-friendly album. Each book by Wild Magnolia Design (wildmagnoliadesign.com) is beautifully crafted by hand, using ink, binding materials and cover and endpaper options selected for their durability, sustainability and low-impact. Renewable and recycled resources include mulberry pulp, cotton rag and even plastic bags. –LJ

Eco-minded brides who love beautiful packaging can have their cake and eat it, too. Beaucoup's favor envelopes are made of sinamay, an all-natural fiber that looks simply elegant. Envelopes come in four sizes, allowing you to get creative with your gift-giving, from crafting organic favor kits to wrapping a personalized CD to presenting loved ones with photos that captured the day (beau-coup.com). –LJ
